Turquoise Rings

Who doesn't love the beautiful azurite blue of the Turquoise. It is native to New Mexico and is our favorite jewel and the mines here turn out some of the most beautiful turquoise in the world. We have recently received some of the finest turquoise stones we ever had, beautifully cut and polished and which we have mounted in brooches and rings, the favorite "MONTANA" ring. For one week beginning May 1st we shall place these on sale at 25 per cent below their real value, thus affording everyone an opportunity to possess one of these beautiful rings. Look in our windows and note these prices and then step inside and secure one. It will be a long time before a like opportunity occurs again.

CHORUS OF FIFTY
VOICES A FEATURE

Among the graduation exercises planned by the eighth grade pupils for the coming spring commencement, a distinct departure from customs of the past, and a performance that promises to rank highly among the amateur productions of this city, is the operetta, "Jack and the Baked Bean Stalk," being prepared under the earnest direction of Misses King and Strong, Mrs. LaBar and Mr. Dansum, teachers of the eighth grade in the Central school building.

A chorus of about fifty pupils will figure in the graceful pantomime, which will be produced at the Elks' opera house. The parts of the principals will be filled by young folks of dramatic promise without reference to scholastic standing, a departure from the style of commencement when only those who had received the highest marks during the year took part in the program. This was necessitated by the search for the last voices among the pupils.

The play follows a distinct story thread and centers around the existence of gnomes, fairies and other supernatural creatures. Jack, the hero, overcomes the obstacles and rescues the Princess in true story book fashion, while the action progresses in a riot of song, dance and drift. The bright costumes that are being designed by the instructors in charge will enhance the production.

The music of the piece is the composition of Frederick Field Biddle, "Jack and the Baked Bean Stalk," consists of two acts, the first act happens right here on earth, and the second carries the spectators into the mystic atmosphere of "Cloudland."

The old fairy tale is moderated in many respects, and some of the solos and chorus numbers contain a good deal of honeyed wisdom in the guise of nursery rhyme.

The principal roles of the cantata will be sung by Gladys Simenich as the Princess; Richard Zymanski, as Jack, the hero of the Beanstalk; Albert Lowrey, as the Little Black Dwarf; Harry Strong, as the Ogre Madge Flanney, as the Little Old Lady.

Mrs. John Colvert, whose triumph upon the local stage have won her a warm place in the hearts of Albuquerque audiences, has consented to assist in drilling the pupils in their steps and dances, and in the stage business.

Miss Lillian Hessenden has been asked to assist as pianist in the rehearsals.

Lawrence Ilfeld, a former University student, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ilfeld, of this city, yesterday began work in the offices of Elmendorf and Strong, prominent wool dealers of Boston. Since his graduation from Harvard university last spring, Mr. Ilfeld had been engaged in various branches of the wool manufacturing industry, learning the business "from the ground up."

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Trister and child, who have been residents of Albuquerque for the past seven months, will leave this evening for Mobile, Mo., to make their future home. Mr. Trister was employed in the Santa Fe shops here.

W. M. McCoy, general merchant of Mountainair, N. M., and secretary of the Mountainair Chautauqua assembly, arrived in the city yesterday to confer with local people on business matters.

John Colvert, whose triumph upon the local stage have won her a warm place in the hearts of Albuquerque audiences, has consented to assist in drilling the pupils in their steps and dances, and in the stage business.

Miss Lillian Hessenden has been asked to assist as pianist in the rehearsals.
